The development has aroused renewed discussion of reports that the Princess Giovanna, of Italy, might become Queen of Albania. Moslem subjects of Zogu refuse, however, to admit the possibility of such a union. They argue that the daughter of King Victor Emmanuel would not be ready to sacrifice her Roman Catholic faith, and they declare that Zogu would be even less likely to abandon Mohammedanism, of which he is a devout adherent.

There remains the possibility of a union between Zogu and some daughter of titled Moslem families. changes I have seen since I first wrote you the news of this fashionable shopping district.

While not exactly perceptible, there is a great deal of activity beginning in Christmas buying. I could not help but notice it yesterday as I visited the shops.

for Christmas their exquisite platinum prints, which are the very ultimate in portrait photography. You have undoubtedly seen the radiantly beautiful picture which adorns their window this week. I could scarcely resist walking right up the steps and placing an order for a dozen for my choicest Christmas gifts. They are not as expensive as you might at first think. The seven by nine size are only $75 for six, or $60 for three. Then the junior size, I find (five by seven), are six for $50.

Of course, you may order from any number of other assortments, ranging from $19 to $103. I still maintain that you will want to order as many of the platinum prints ar you can possibly afford, for they are the loveliest that photographic art produces.

Full-skirted long taffets and satin fallies in shell pluks, turquoise blue, and every luscious flower tint are priced from $29.50 to $49.50 and look as though they should be twice the amount.

Just the little frock you want for that Thanksgiving festivity is here, I am sure. Juliette Allen is at 1617 Connecticut avenue.

I looked at the gowns in the grouping and can tell you with all sincerity that they are real imports of the finest workmenship and with the intricacles in development which mark them as really Parisian.

Everything in the shop, including all day and afternoon frocks, have been marked one-third and one-fourth off. A special group of hats from the earlier collection have been priced at $5 and $10. This is the kind of a sale you expect in January.

woman to occupy a seat in the House at the final session of the Seventieth Congress, convening Monday.

Mrs. Oldfield will be unopposed to fill out the unexpired term of her husband, who was Democratic whip of the House. Gov. Harvey Parnell, following a conference with a special committee from the Second Arkansas District, indicated he would call a special election early in the week, according to an Associated Press dispatch from Little Rock.

The special election will be a formality, it was stated, as prospective candidates for the two-year term for which Mr. Oldfield was elected recently favor his widow to serve the unexpired term tnding in March.

J. E. Williams, of Newport, Ark., a probable candidate for the next Congress, is quoted in the dispatch as saying: "There is no question about Mrs. Oldfield being elected, as virtually the entire district is in favor of bestowing the honor on her."

Mrs. Oldfield, at her residence, 2222 Q street, last night said:

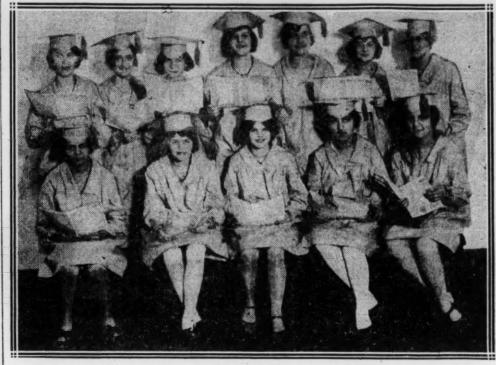

"I am deeply appreciative of the good will shown toward Mr. Oldfield's memory and the expression of confidence in me."

"Three basic things to look for," say Speed Wagon owners. "They govern operating and maintenance costs."

We suggest this: Before you buy trucks, look for these three qualities. Make sure they are present to a generous degree.

Ample Power For Weight. Reo engineers have done more than provide powerful motors. Dead, useless weight is scientifically eliminated—so pay loads can be increased. Weight is matched with horse-power. The result is an utterly new kind of performance. For swift acceleration in traffic, in hill-climbing and above all in ability to move smoothly away under their loads without wearing strain. #### STATES DEPRIVED OF THEIR RIGHTS.

Congress may as well dispose of the question of reapportionment of members of the House. It is a question that will not down, and postponement of action makes the situation steadily worse. Certain States are deprived of their rightful representation in the House. It is reported that a combination of members favoring reapportionment has been formed for the purpose of blocking all legislation at the forthcoming session unless Congress will deal with reapportionment. If the States entitled to targer representation can not obtain their rights in any other way they are justified in holding up legislation in order to bring Congress to terms.

The Fenn bill, providing for automatic reapportionment after each census on the basis of a total membership of 435, is favored by a large proportion of members, because it will remove from politics the decennial struggle to readjust the representation of States in the House. But whether the Fenn bill is to have the right of way, or some other plan, it is incumbent upon Congress to do the square thing by all the States by enacting a reapportionment bill. The States that will lose one or more seats should not be permitted to block reapportionment and thus frustrate the intent of the Constitution. If carried to its logical conclusion the denial to the States of their just representation in the House would disrupt the Republic. Congress should not risk the consequences of an ugly quarrel among the States over this question, even if it may be safe to try the patience of the States still further without actual danger.

The fair and honest thing to do is to reapportion the membership of the House according to the last census. It must be done eventu-

BICENTENARY OF WASHINGTON.

What is the proper way to celebrate the two hundredth anniversary of the birth of George Washington? All the United States will be anxious for some fitting commemoration of the event. Various suggestions as to the kind of celebration have been advanced, but all seem to lack practicability.

Foremost among the suggestions has been a world fair in New York City. Another movement was reported on foot to conduct a world exposition in Chicago and link it up with the birthday of the first United States President. Not to be outdone where only talk is concerned, some enthusiasts in Washington have suggested a world fair for the National Capital in 1932. Every one of these suggestions hould be swept of from the s planning for the event begins, for the simple reason that world fairs are out of date and impractical.

The experience of Philadelphia with its Besquicentennial Exposition should serve as a warning to any one favoring the idea of another world exposition. Unpaid debts of the Sesquicentennial Association amounting to $845,000 have been laid before the city council and are generally considered a moral obligation agansit the city treasury. People are no longer interested in world fairs. The motion picture, the radio, the airplane, the automobile and he press have made the people acquainted with every country on earth. The element of amazement is gone from any international collection of products and inventions that might be got together, because the people know all about them beforehand. Another world fair failure could only mar the commemoration of this important date in American history. The two hundredth birthday of Washington is still more than three years away, but this is not too soon to begin work on plans for the commemoration. The celebration should be in keeping with the dignity of the United States. The Government should give the event due recognition, and the celebration should be so worked out as to include the whole Nation. Who has a plan to suggest?

GAS PLANT VALUATION.

Testifying as a Public Untility Commission vitness in the Washington Gas Light Co. valustion proceedings, Byers McK. Bachman, chief countant for the commission, yesterday placed the cost of the gas company's plant at 12,896,003. R. O. Luqueer, first witness called for the company when the hearings were inaugurated several weeks ago, placed the value of the plant at $27,250,000. Burnell, second expert called in behalf of the company, boosted the value to $29,750,000, and was followed in turn by A. S. Miller, who hid that the "fair" value was $34,380,000. Mr. Bachman's figure is less than half the mos modest claim advanced by the company, and only slightly in excess of one-third the value claimed by the company's final witness.

The Bachman figure represents the historic value of plant and property. In this respect it differs from that presented by the preceding witnesses, whose figures all purport to repre- New York. Experts were sent to examine it sent replacement value. Mr. Bachman's figure represents the money actually spent by the company in purchasing, putting into operation and building up its entire plant. The figures presented by company experts represent the cost of reproducing the plant today, and necessarily must be higher than the historic value, inasmuch as the costs of materials, land and labor has increased greatly in the years the company has been in operation.

The commission has other witnesses yet to be called. H. Carl Wolf, the next to take the stand in its behalf, will testify as to the cost of reproducing the plant today. His figure will be higher than that of Mr. Bachman. It is not likely, however, that it will be as high as the lowest presented by company experts.

Somewhere between Mr. Bachman's $12,-000,000 and Mr. Luqueer's $27,000,000 lies a valuation figure fair and equitable to company and public alike. There seems to be plenty of room between the high and low figures at which to establish a fair valuation.

GOOD WILL AND COMMERCE.

The world is engaged in a struggle to capture the rich South American market. The southern republics have an aggregate area of 7,881,000 square miles, 2.6 times that of the United States. Their total population, 73,000,-000, is roughly 60 per cent of that of the United States, and the density of their population, 9.27 per square mile, is less than onefourth that of the United States. From the population standpoint the South American republics stand in the position today that the United States occupied in 1856 or 1857, when it had 28,400,000 inhabitants; but, says the Manufacturers' Record, "due to the enormous advances made since then in science, engineer ing and transportation, their ability to prospect and develop their resources is far ahead of anything the United States knew in 1856."

Mr. Hoover no doubt had the trade possibilities of South America in the back of his mind when he proposed his good will voyage. This is not, of course, the underlying explanation of his interest in such a trip, but no man could have failed to be interested in the prospect of the trade that ultimately will develop with the republics south of the Rio Grande.

Latin America buys from the United States about 36 per cent of all its imports, and these purchases amount to about 16.7 per cent of all American exports. The United States purchases 35 per cent of all Latin-American exports, a quantity equal to 23 per cent of all American imports. Obviously, Latin America is one of the most important customers of the United States, but commerce between the two Americas is capable of enormous expansion.

The United States exports and imports goods of greater aggregate value to and from Latin America than to or from the United Kingdom. Germany or France. Its exports to South America are made up largely of manufactured articles not produced in South America. Its imports consist largely of raw materials not produced in the United States. Thus Latin America and the United States are not competitors. They are partners. Cementing the ties of good will that bind the continents will have a most beneficial effect upon trade relationship. Conversely, mutually beneficial and continually expanding trade relationships will operate powerfully for the maintenance of good will.

PRINCETON'S ENTRANCE PLAN.

The most encouraging feature of the new plan of admittance to Princeton University, as announced recently by Dean Heermance, is that the entrance examination is still to be maintained. It appears that the authorities of Princeton have decided that it is necessary to have a substantial number of high school graduates in college in order to have a cosmopolitan student body. Hitherto the high school boys have been rather handicapped in competition with the candidates for admission coming forward from endowed preparatory schools. The object of the new plan is to provide a 'certain elasticity," which will tend to remove the existing inequalities as between the two classes of students.

The method of procedure to be henceforward adopted is to test the high school applicant "only in the significant courses of his final preparatory year," and not on the entire four years of work, as has hitherto been the case A certain misgiving as to whether this project means any lowering of standards, any letting down of the bars, is inevitable. One can only hope that the examination on the "significant" courses will be so conducted as to preclude this

It is, of course, desirable to give the high school boy every fair chance consistent with sound scholarship, for as Dean Heermance

These boys, when admitted, usually do well in college. They have frequently made sacrifices to continue their education. They have a well-defined objective in view, and apply themselves with a degree o enthusiasm lacking in the school life of other students who lack the incentive of a real objective, and for whom the way to college has been made easy by expert teachers and schools that specialize in col lege preparation.

Princeton, in common with other universities, has evidently discovered that sometimes the students coming up from the preparatory schools are a sophisticated, highly-coached product, and that in the wear and tear of undergraduate life they fail to realize the expectations warranted by their early promise. It will, therefore, be all to the good to have a greater influx of high school graduates, provided these latter show a high-grade and satisfactory proficiency in the more limited field to which their entrance examinations are in future years to be confined.

FAKE "MASTERPIECES."

Fake works of art resembling masterpieces of the Italian Renaissance have been passed off upon American art collectors for large sums, estimated to total $2,175,000. An Italian antiquary and art dealer discovered soon after the war the remarkable ability of one Alceo Dossena and his brother, Alcide, in imitating the works of sculptors of the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries. Keeping the young sculptors ignorant of any fraudulent intent. the collector and antiquary made a business of selling the Dossenas' work as genuine antique masterpleces,

The fraud went on undetected, with the culptors receiving a pittance for their work and the promoters fleecing art collectors in this country of large sums. Recently a piece of statuary was offered the Frick Gallery in and discovered the trick. Several museums in the United States that have purchased fake works are indignant; the Italian brothers are outraged at the fraud perpetrated with their works, and activities have begun in Rome to enact legislation which will make a repetition of such exploitation impossible.

Since the fraud became known the belief has been expressed that several pleces done by Dossena repose in the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York under the names of famous sculptors. The Museum of Boston is reported to have been duped in the purchase for a large sum of a sarcophagus attributed to Mino da Fiesole. A statue of the Madonna and Child, sold to the Museum of Cleveland as the work of Giovanni Pisano, is also reported to be the work of Dossena.

The young sculptor claims that he was not only duped by his agents but cheated out of part of the money which was promised him for the work. He maintains that he did not know to what use his copies of the masters were being put until recently, when he was informed that two or three of his statues were occupying places of honor in a museum in Berlin.

Europe has little sympathy with Americans who are responsible for the steady flow of art treasures to this side of the Atlantic. Dr. Wilhelm Bode, of Berlin, an eminent expert, recently warned his countrymen that private collections of Rembrandts, Raphaels, Van Dycks and Jan Vermeers bought by art dealers for rich American clients will never return to Europe. Many works of art brought to this country find resting places in American museums, and once in a museum, a masterpiece is definitely withdrawn from the market.

For this reason many European countries are trying to assemble all antique masterpleces in their museums. The result has been a great increase in the value of antique works. During the last seven years America has sent abroad $225,000,000 for antique art. Because of greater prosperity in this country, practically all of the private collections are going to American bidders. The general situation favors the operations of fraudulent dealers, and collectors are likely to be swindled unless they investigate the history of alleged "master-

INTELLIGENCE TEST OF VOTERS.

In a representative form of government an intelligent electorate is one of the first essen-Ever since the day when the United States began pioneering the way in popular government the question of who is entitled to vote has been a vital one, seldom satisfactorily solved. Efforts to have all citizens meet specified qualifications before extending the balloting privilege have often failed in application, and the general tendency has been to allow universal suffrage, with adulthood the

Return to the property qualification exacted for voting in the earlier days of the republic is unthinkable, but many Americans learned in the field of political science look forward to the day when some standard of education or intelligence will be required of those who would vote. This might be considered undemocratic if the state did not hold out educational privileges to every one. But even for eign adults who come to this country ignorant of the language and American custom could meet reasonable qualifications through night chools and Americanization programs. The country is faced with the fact that 6 per cent of its population is illiterate. This means that there are 6,000,000 Americans over 10 years of age who can not read or write. The percentage of illiteracy reaches as high as 18 per cent in some States; even as high as 8 per cent among native-born white people. This is higher than the national percentage in seventeen other nations. Not all of these people are incapable of casting a ballot intelligently, but many of them are.

Nineteen States have literacy tests applied by registrars of voters or election officials. Such tests are usually applied perfunctorily, and often prove unsuccessful through widespread evasion. In New York, however, the est as to whether the citizen can use the English language intelligently is applied to new voters. No one gets on the voters' list unless his intelligence is at least equal to that of a 10-year-old child. Examination of would-be voters is placed where it belongs-in the hands of the State education department.

Operation of this law in the last election ruled out 8,347 persons who were incapable of interpreting a ballot. A total of 66,461 took the test, showing an increase of 200 per cent over 1927. The requirement undoubtedly prompted many citizens who otherwise would have remained ignorant of the use of English to qualify themselves as voters. It serves to impress the new voter with his privilege of voting, as well as stimulating interest in the rudiments of learning.

With all the facilities for education in this country today there is no excuse for ignorance of the English language. If some foreignborn residents and some natives are not interested enough in the country to learn its medium of communication they are not competent to share in the direction of government. Moreover an ignorant element in the electorate is a constant menace in the hands of political bosses. New York's decision that the universal suffrage should be "trimmed at the edges" by elimination of absolute ignorance deserves serious consideration in other States.

Struggle Is Manly, But She Was a Silly Woman Who Tried to Sweep Back the Sea.

THERE is a certain young woman whose smile is not affected when likely, however, that a five-day week people call her an old maid. She is light of heart, carefree, indeendent, and all her days are pleasant. "I have been happy," she conn this neighborhood who is so de- fided to a friend, "ever since I ceased to struggle."

Thus she made a joke of it, but she had chanced upon the true philosophy. She meant to say that her days had been darkened by anxiety, deferred hope and valu ambitions while she continued to day-dream of omance; but when she gave up hope and resigned herself to the inevitable, her cares disappeared and she was free of worry. 'Her case may seem amusing, but her philosophy could restore happi-

They fought against their environment in desperation and misery until they developed a delusion of martyrdom and a defensive invalidism designed to win attention. They are self-made invalids; a very cynical medical man would call them self-made idiots.

Men whose nervous temperament is similar to that of women suffer in the same way and break in the same way because life fails to give them all they covet. If it is true, as many say, that the theater is dying; then, after "Whoopee" has its run, let it die. That is, of course, only so far as musical comedy is concerned. At that the theater could turn up its toes and die gracefully.

Flo Ziegfeld's latest contribution to be theater. "Whoopee," stopping over the on its way to New York, is by far id away the finest touch the 'Old aster has ever made to the great canst they call the stage. In his day, o, he has made several noteworthy rokes with a brush that seldom errs. 'Oadway still has something to live re-with "Whoopee" on the way.

Washingtonians particularly will remember the basis of this concoction a novel by E. J. Rath, the pen-name r a celebrated Washington correting—the original play had the mountains for its locale, and a ranch, and cowboys, an' everything—a hundred young merican giris, all glorified, find easy entrances in the garb of cowgiris, and Indian- lassies. and gypales, and whatnot, so that the American Costumers Union was kept working overtime to turn out snappy outfits. The union succeeded—and there is one scene, where some eight or ten Indian Lady Godivas come down the mountainside, on horseback, but not riding sidesaddle. It is, as one of the first-nighters remarked, no time for the dimming of eyesight—and a spectacle of grandeur the like of which all the Indian chiefs that ever lifed on the reservations of old never saw.

Of course, the mind's eye must travel a bit—in- anticipation—to say that "Whoopee" is the greatest Zieg-feldian offer; for, truth to state, the production is not yet in its final and finished form. There is, for one thing, casting to be done; or recasting, At least one part that should stand out is not in the proper hands. There are, too, some 20 or 30 minutes to go by the boards.

As it stands, the first act of "Whoopee" runs exactly two hours—too long, even for "Whoopee." The last act consumes another, so that the eleventh hour is well on its way to make the reaching for the bound of the whoopee." The last act consumes another, so that the eleventh hour is well on its way to meet midnight when the reaching for the makes you like it. The man is a born comedian. # A new Thanksgiving with The NEW Frigidaire

Place your order now..for Thanksgiving delivery

THANKSGIVING Day! And L everywhere preparations for the feast to come. A stately turkey in the place of honor; and bristling with cloves a lordly ham. Mince pies and pumpkin pies; apples, grapes...and yellow tangerines. And in the midst of all the bustle and excitement ... a New Frigidaire, freezing more ice cubes than it has ever had to freeze before; making a delicious frozen salad and dessert for the late Thanksgiving supper.

In the thousands of homes where it is already in use, the New Frigidaire will simplify the preparation of the Thanksgiving feast tremendously!

Why not have it in your home? Think of the advantages which the

New Frigidaire offers you not only on Thanksgiving Day, but every day in the year. Big reserves of freezing power enable the New Frigidaire to freeze full-size ice cubes . . . more quickly. Yet in spite of this increased power the New Frigidaire is incredibly quiet; you don't hear it start, stop, or run.

And it pays for itself as you pay for it!

With all its radical improvements, Frigidaire offers greater value than ever before, and General Motors terms have never been more liberal. And the savings made possible by the New Frigidaire are so great that on the deferred payment plan, which most people prefer, the New Frigidaire easily pays for itself as you pay for it.

Visit our display room and see the New Frigidaire models. Let us give you a demonstration of the model best suited to your needs.

Let us show you how easy it is to have a New Frigidaire at once on the liberal General Motors deferred payment plan. There is still time for delivery before Thanksgiving. Come in today.

NONPARTISAN TARIFF

New York, Nov. 26 (A.P.).—A proposal for a tariff court composed of non-partisan experts who would hold office for life was placed before a meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers today as a means of taking the tariff out of politics

John E. Edgerton, president of the association, in advancing the plan, charged that the present tariff commission not only is political, but also is ineffective when relief is needed quickly by American business interests, because Congress must ratiff far-reaching rulings of the commission.

As an instance of the reported ineffectiveness of the present system, he charged that some industries have been put "almost out of business since the Fordney-McCumber act was passed."

"I refer particularly to the cement industry," he added. "That is on the free list, and at the time of the passage of this act it was not anticipated that a tariff was necessary at all, but since the act was passed this industry has encountered a competition that was not foreseen and it has been very greatly embarrassed and its very life endangered by the fact that it has to wait for the assembling of Congress, and then endless discussion after Congress meets, before it can get relief from a condition that has so suddenly arisen.

"It is a question now of how the

from a condition that has so suddenly arisen.

"It-is a question now of how the protective policy is going to be applied politically by Congress in a bunglesome way, or whether it is going to be taken as the sort of subject that it is and committed as far as possible to a body properly equipped for treating the question as it should be treated."

The proposed tariff court, Edgerton said, would, if properly endowed with power, provide a tribunal to which manufacturers or others could appeal and obtain immediate relief if the circumstances warranted. He added the proposed court would be composed of tariff experts "of the caliber to be above suggestion that they would play politics."

Approximately 100 persons, including representatives of the Farm Bureau Federation, the American Dairy Federation, and the New Jersey Farm Bureau, attended the opening sessions of the special meeting.

Armour Home Blaze Fought by Society Men

dence, a $200,000 structure, were destroyed.

Mr. Armour, who is a vice president of Armour & Co. and a cousin of the late J. Ogden Armour, was in his bed room when he smelled smoke. He investigated and found a fire in the attic had gained considerable headway.

Six maids, a houseman, gardener and chauffeur meanwhile had taken up the work of carrying out the furniture. Neighbors of 'he family began arriving a few minutes after city firemen. They rendered assistance in the salvage. Among the volunteers was Col. Noble B. Judah, Ambassador to Cuba.

Man Slain in Dispute On Moving Ditched Car

Florence, Ala., Nov. 26 (A.P.).—W. C. Beck, of Cherokee, Ala., is dead, and Cihef of Police Fred Tapp, of Cherokee, and Mrs. H. E. Thomas, of near Cherokee, are in a Sheffield hospital today seriously wounded as the result of an argument over a stalled automobile on a highway near Cherokee last night.

Tapp was learning to drive a new car, Moore said, when he ran it into a ditch at the edge of the highway. Mrs. Thurman, in another machine, had wolunteered to aid the two men in extricating Tapp's car from the ditch when an argument apparently arose.

Both men were said to have opened fire, Beck being shot three times in the abdomen. He died en route to the hospital.

The reason for the new Chevrolet

A STATEMENT of General Motors' policy

by ALFRED P. SLOAN, JR., President

THERE is an attitude in General Motors which is charac-1 terized by the phrase: "Facts and the Open Mind." It accepts nothing as final. It welcomes every new idea, and-by incessant research and test-produces continuous progress.

This attitude extends throughout our organization. In every division there is continuous improvement. And these improvements are not held back from the public. When they are proved they are passed on promptly.

The New Chevrolet is a superb example. During the first nine months of 1928 more than 1,000,000 Chevrolets were sold—a record for all time. Never were models more popular. Never was there a business which could have gone forward more safely without any material change.

Yet we have made a most sweeping change. Having passed the million mark in Chevrolet production, we were able to realize the dream of years: a six-cylinder car, with Fisher Body style, within the price range of the four

There was no question of waiting for the current models to exhaust their appeal. The improvements were possible. The public had made them possible by the volume of its patronage. The public was entitled to the improvements promptly.

This is the spirit which lies behind the New Chevrolet. It is more than a 6-cylinder car. It is a wholly new creation. It is the triumph of a policy built upon a keen realization that the most valuable asset in business is continuous good-will.

Acful PStrauf.
President

ROAST young turkey, so deliciously tender that it melts in the mouth. Piquant red cranberry compote with delicate keen tang. Rich chestnut dressing with just a hint of onion and celery and spicy ham. All the mellow odors and flavors of harvest time are combined in this irresistible dish - Roast Young Turkey,

In addition to the resolutions committee report the convention heard an address by Father J. W. Maguire, president of St. Viator's College, Bourbonnais, Ill., on injunctions, and a few remarks by John H. Bartlett, First Assistant Postmaster General.

Father Maguire told the delegates that in their opposition to use of injunctions in labor disputes they were "making a definite contribution to the cause of liberty in the United States."

John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, proposed that a large endowment fund be created for use in long drawn-out strikes, such as that of the mine workers.

wireless messages were being received by the operators. Several messages would be going at once: added to this a vague uneasy roar from the loudspeakers produced an uncanny effect. The imagination was further stimulated by the knowledge contained in those messages, to wit: a Greek ship off the coast of Georgia was in distress. It was a bitter cold night and a terrific storm was in progress. Another ship had gone to her aid, but could ofter none on account of the fury of the waves. One could picture the distress of the crew and passengers; the excitement, the shouting, running to and fro, the lashing of the waves, the blowing of whistles, and, above all this, the desperate S O S signals which kept up incessantly."

(Fill the blank before you read the answers that follow.)

ANSWER BLANK.

THE ANSWERS.

13. On trick 1, South should discard the Jack of Spades. South can get two discards on Dummy's Hearts. Discarding the two Spades will prevent any possibility of losing a Spade trick. Discarding two small Clubs would not prevent the possibility of losing a Club trick.

14. To trick 2. Dummy should lead.

14. To trick 2. Dummy should lead the Ace of Hearts and South discard the Queen of Spades. This discard is made so as to leave South without any Spade except the Ace. The plan of the hand is to lead a Spade from Dummy to trick 3, win it in Closed Hand, and then try the Diamond finesse. It may win or lose. If it win, no trump tricks will be lost; if it lose, the adversaries will take one trump trick. The same method should be used with the Clubs. The maximum apt to be lost by the two-hands is the two Minor Kings if both finesses go wrong. If both finesses go right, a Grand Slam can be made.

bulb can be turned into a "rainbow" in the same way.

How are we to explain the coming of colors from white, or yellowish white? It is because white light is made up of different colors. Usually the colors reach us all together, and we call the combination white.

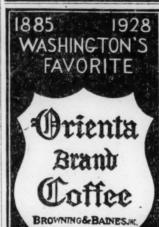

Colors get to our eyes by "waves." Red waves are longer than relet. When the waves from the sun are "strained" through a glass prism we see them as separate colors.

I hope that one of these days you will test this out by using a prism. Almost all teachers of physics in high schools supply prisms for the use of their pupils.

Rainbows are made by nature without the help of any glass. Drops of rain or mist strain the sunlight and bring out the colors. I have seen beautiful rainbows in the mist which rises from the base of Niagara Falls.

Strange as it may seem, dark colors can be turned into white—or what looks like white. Place pleces of orange and blue paper on the upper surface of a wide, flat top. Spin the top very fast and you will see white. The same may be done with purple and green, or yellow and indigo.

Although the higher charge for demand loans was effective in bringing out a good deal of profit taking in many directions, such selling did not assume proportions sufficient to check bullish operations entirely. CALL MONEY RATES UP

Special to The Washington Post.
New York, Nov. 26.—Following considerable early strength in virtually all sections of the list, the stock market ran into much profit taking today, largely influenced by the running up of the call money rate to 7½ per cent, a figure not hitherto posted since the turn of the month. As a consequence a number of sizable losses on the day were showing at the close and ranged up to about 10 points in a few instances, but gains, outnumbering recessions by about 4 to 1, were gen—

Airplane issues again were buoyant early but reacted rather sharply. Wright, which opened 15 points higher, ended the day but 4 points to the good. Curtiss finished more than 5 points under the day's best and a major fraction net lower. The airplanes doubtless were given a fillip by announcement of plans to begin a combined rail and air service by the Southern Railway and the Illinois Central.

When all the principal railroads of the country supplement rail service with airplanes t is easy to see that the manufacturers of aircraft will have a great deal more business to handle. Rails were returned to a position of greater prominence as industrials settled back after their initial outburst of strength. Buying in the carrier list was encouraged by the satisfactory showing of the latest budget of October operating statements which came to hand in the course of the day.

Department Shares Active.

Results reported by Great Northern, Reading, Lehigh Valley and Chesapeake and Ohlo were particularly impressive by reason of the smart gains achieved both in gross and net operating incomes for the month.

There was brisk buying also of the day. Sharp advances were the rulein such stocks as associated Dry Goods. Best & Co., Gimbel Brothers, and R. H. Macy, although the first named suffered something of a sinking spell after a forencon upturn of some 5 points into new high ground following the announcement that the directors had ordered only the regular quarterly dividend.

Associated Soon recovered, however.  $\begin{array}{c} 15) \ 399 \ 25 \ 8 \\ 9 \ 45 \ 45 \ 44 \ 2 \ 45 \ 45 \\ 8 \\ 40 \ 119 \ 118 \ 118 \ 117 \ 418 \\ 100 \ 119 \ 118 \ 118 \ 117 \ 418 \\ 118 \ 118 \ 117 \ 418 \\ 101 \ 119 \ 118 \ 118 \ 118 \ 124 \ 118 \\ 101 \ 119 \ 118 \ 118 \ 118 \ 124 \ 118 \\ 101 \ 119 \ 118 \ 118 \ 118 \ 124 \ 118 \\ 101 \ 119 \ 118 \ 118 \ 118 \ 124 \ 118 \\ 101 \ 119 \ 118 \ 118 \ 118 \ 124 \ 12$

Kn investment in Cities Ser-An investment in Cities Service securities protects you against the risk of putting all your eggs in one basket. Your dividends come from the earnings of more than 100 subsidiary companies, spread over North America from lower Canada to Mexico. These subsidiaries are active in three great industries—electric light and power, manufactured and natural gas, and petroleum.

HENRY L. DOHERTY & CO. 501 Southern Bldz. Wash. D. C. Send me booklet "TPO-112" describing the investment possibilities of Cities Service Securities.

A CERTIFICATE of ownership in some dependable security is the most important thing in life to the woman who guards the hearth.

In her hands, to a very great extent, rests the responsibility for conserving and perpetuating the spirit upon which the home is founded—the spirit of love, of romance and of happiness.

This spirit is one which needs the sunshine of financial security in which to thrive. It cannot grow in the darkness of uncertainty and anxiety. A home that is not economically free soon becomes a prison.

The ownership of securities of the $800,000,000 Cities Service organization is bringing increased freedom and security to 350,000 investors throughout the world. These securities are sound, readily marketable and attractive in their yield

BOND MARKET TRIES TO IMITATE STOCKS

Early Flurry Subsides When Exchange Prices Suffer Sinking Spell.

TOTAL SALES $11,000,000

New York, Nov. 26 (A.P.) .- Trading started off briskly in the bond market today and for a while it seemed as if oonds at last would share in the heavy business being done in stocks, but it proved to be only a flurry. Prices proved to be only a flurry. Prices eased as the stock market experienced a temporary sinking spell and advances in the call money rate seemed to discourage further buying. Total sales exceeded $11,000.000, a fair day for the market, but early gains were dissipated before the close.

Andes Copper 7s were typical of the day's price movements. The issue was whirled up 13 points to a new top at 241 before noon, then sagged to 230 and recovered a portion of the gain, closing up about 8 points net. Anaconda Copper 7s gained 3 points net and Colon Oil 6s moved up about 2 points to a new high at 121. Elsewhere, gains chiefly were small.

Oils were among the active issues, particularly, White Eagle 5½s, Humble 5½s, Sinclair Consolidated 6s and Standard of New York 4½s. A few sugars also were in demand, notably Cuba Cane Sugar debenture 8s and convertible 7s, which closed with net gains of around 2 points each. Profittaking was rather extensive during the gains of around 2 points each. Profit-taking was rather extensive during the session and International Cement 5s, Certainteed Sys, North American Cement 64, U. S. Steel 5s, Goodyear Tire 5s and others closed fractionally lower. A wide list of utilities were acquired, but gains in this group also were small small.

Rails were somewhat irregular and price movements in this group were ilmited to fractions.

The foreign list also was irregular. Italian industrials, strong spots last week, were heavy and neglected today. U. S. Government obligations were inclined to heaviness.

American League baseball clubs are busy preparing an offensive against the world champion New York Yankees in next year's campaign. As the other seven clubs go about their winter scheming, the firm of Ruppert, Barrow, Huggins & Co. Is actively fortifying its own defenses against the impending attack.

The St. Louis Browns, who came from nowhere to third place last season, and the Washington Senators, with Waiter Johnson presiding, have added more players than any other American League club since the 1928 record was compiled. Manager Daniel P. Howley has drafted two players, purchased eight, recalled three and signed a free agent, who may be the best of the new crop. The Washington Senators got two additions by draft and bought or recalled twelve. The Yankees claim third place in the new talent line-up without the add of a drafted player. The champions bought five, recalled the same number and ordered two previously purchased players to report in the spring.

The Athletics, Red Sox Indians have been content to increase their player lists by five each. The Detroit Tigers are in the middle ground with nine additions and the White Sox have taken on seven.

Louis drafted Oscar Estrada, a er, from Shreveport and made it tery by claiming Catcher Harvey jon, of Greeuville, in the South tic Association. Rights of option exercised on three players placed ulsa, Outfielder Badgro, Second nan Dondero and Third Baseman es.

Cagle-Strong Controversy Is Rivaling "Long Count"

Associated Press Sports Editor).

New York, Nov. 26 (A.P.).—The somewhat celebrated controversy over the famous Chicago long count was never any more heated than the current debate over the relative merits of Red Cagle and Ken Strongthe East's outstanding two delegates to the 1928 all-American convention, now being called to order.

It's an argument that won't be settled for some time to come, if at all, for both are great, both are triple threats, both are the mainsprings of their respective teams, Army and New York University.

Take Cagle, if for no other reason than that he comes first in the alphabetical order. The slim but wiry Army redhead has been the central figure of every big game played by the Cadets. His passes beat Harvard, his slashing, broken field dashes beat Yale, his brilliancy alone almost overcame Notre Dame and his individual work beat Nebraska.

Cagle has come through under any and all conditions, with the white light of publicity upon him and the eager hands of the opposition outstretched to check him, but so has Strong.

Bigger and more powerful but not quite as shifty as Cagle, the Violet star has everything to recommend him, including the whole Carnegte team. Strong is a better kicker but no more brilliant a passer than Cagle. He gets up tremendous drive carrying the ball.

Like his Army rival, Strong has been a consistently the big star of the New York University campaign all season. He was by far the outstanding player on the field even on the day that Crorgetown plucked the Violets for teir only defeat and rose to his greatest heights against Carnegle. Add to all this that Strong has set up a scoring record by tallying 154 points, with one game to go, and you have a fair idea of his usefulness.

The White Sox claimed John Kerr, as second baseman, from Hollywood by draft. Furchases included Outfielders Watwood, Shreveport, and Clarence Hoffman, Sacramento; Catcher Mealey, Pitcher Frazier and Infielder Jeffries, of Dallas and Pitcher Robert Welland, of Moline, Jeffries spent the 1928 season with Akron. Welland pitched the last game of the season for the Sox against the Athletics and permitted but CONTINUED ON PAGE 17, COLUMN 3.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 26 (A.P.) .-Capt. The giant tackie regained full consciousness this afternoon after having been in a semi-conscious and unconscious state since the accident, which happened in the fourth quarter of the coutest.

Lassman's physician said his patient would probably fully recover, but he said he did not think it would be advisable to remove the gridder to New York for at least two weeks.

boints, with one game to go, and you have a fair idea of his usefulness.

Strong comes from Connecticut and Cagle from Louisiana, but otherwise they have quite a bit in common.

Outside the East, where Harpster, of Carnegle, is another back field entry, they may not be quite as ready to hand the palms to Strong and Cagle, uncontested. The Rocky Mountain area has one of the greatest all-around stars in the country in Earl (Dutch) Clark, of Colorado College and Pueblo. Even the fact that "Chuck" Carroll, of Washington, captained a losing team has not obscured his superlative ability in the eyes of Pacific Coast critics.

Down in the Southwest, Redman Hume, of Southern Methodist, was headed for all-American honors until injuries put him on the shelf. Hume outshone Cagle when these two met at West Point early in the campaign and that ought to be sufficient praise for any ball carrier.

CRANE, ILLINOIS CAPTAIN their third consecutive team victory with a total of 45 points. Reld covered the 6-mile course in the exceptional time of 30 minutes 11 seconds—two seconds ahead of Francis Lindsay, Maine. Cox finished in 30:41, completely outclassed by the leaders. Three University of Pennsylvania freshmen finished the freshman three mile race side by side. They were Dan Dean, William McKniff and Roland Ritchie. Their team won the title with 61 points. Penn State was next with 830. xceptional time of 30 minutes 11 sec

G.W.-C.U. Game Tickets Placed on Sale Today

So heavy is the demand for tick ets for the annual George Wash-Ington-Catholic University game, to Thanksgiving Day afternoon, that 800, calling for seats between the 35 and 50 yard lines, have been placed on sale at Spaldings, the George Washington Gymnasium and the G. W. Law School.

While, mechanically, this game, the only college grid attraction here Thursday, will not rank among the hard fought as any in the country, for the rivalry between the two in stitutions is so intense that victory in this game is regarded as the difference between success and failure by both teams, irrespective of their previous season's showing.

Success has not been in close association with either side to date this year, but that's really not worrying them now. Either team will consider it a successful season if it can drag off the victory.

Plenty of rest has been given both teams in preparation. Fin-ishing workouts were started yes-terday, and today George Wash-ington will call a halt in training with an intensive signal drill. Catholie probably will hold a scrim-mage this afternoon.

Both teams are going into battle confident, judging from reports. Things that would seem to be handicaps will not be factors in the result. The exceptionally keen rivalry between the institutions always produces a bitterly fought struggle that ends in the favor of the team that falls to let up or which gets the breaks.

Facts, however, seem to favor Catholic U., for Coach McAuliffe jubilantly reported last night that his team will take the field with the strongest array of back field talent it has had available since its victory over William and Mary, a team which, incidentally, scored a whitewash on the Colonial boys.

Best Team Since Pitt of 1916, Is Tribute to Locals' Victims.

Georgetown Severely Crippled for Battle With Detroit.

By JACK ESPEY.

THE widespread expression of critics that the New York University Eleven deserves the highest ranking of any gridrom machine in America has received no more enthusiastic support than from the coach whose team has been the only one so far this season to score a victory over the famed Violets. Making no reservations in his sportsmanlike statement. Coach Lou Little, of Georgetown University, halfs the New York team as "the greatest I've seen since 1916."

With his own team robbed of much of its stamina in defeating the New Yorkers, 7 to 2, Coach Little yesterday paused in the midst of preparations for the battle with Detroit U. this Saturday, and spent a few moments in glorifying the huskles led by Coach Chick Meehan.

"New York University is the greater free the certain for the state of the state of "New York University is the greatest football team I've seen since the Pittsburgh team of 1916," declared Luttle. "Those boys have power, speed and smart execution of plays to a remarkable degree, and they've got a coach who knows how to teach football to them. Chick Meehan is one of the best in the land today.

"New York University is a better team than Georgetown. I say this, though, without taking anything away from my boys in their splendid win over Meehan's team, for the day we beat New York U. we fought for the breaks and we got them. The marvelous determination of Georgetown carried it through that day.

Pittsburgh went through the season of 1916 undefeated, and I speak from experience when I class New York alongside of that club. Pittsburgh beat the team I played con that year, the University of Pennsylvania, 20 to 0, and I think I am qualified to make the present comparison." In his statement could be seen one of the reasons why Lou Little has achieved outstanding success with the Hilltop Elevens of the past five years.

The pupils of a man who breathes a spirit so fair toward their opponents quite naturally will do the same individually, and in their actions the Hilltoppers have been bolstered by the thought of playing the game squarely.

Georgetown must face the undefeat-ed Detroit Eleven without Duplin, of Duplin and Bozek available. Little said he couldn't predict a triumph. He had been in conference with the Blue and Gray scouts who observed the Titans in their most recent games, and learned of the exceptional prowess of the Detroit back field which consists of Capt. ("Cowboy") Connell, Brazil, Maloney and Fachon, one of the fastest and heaviest quartets behind the line of any collegiate eleven in the country.

Beats Essare by One-Half Length in Drive Under Whipping.

Edwin, which races for W. Averill Harriman, was winner of the best offering at Bowie this afternoon, when, with a rush through the final furlong, he led home Essare, from the Jacque's Stable, with Muid, under the silks of the Justa Farm Stable, the one to save third from H. P. Whitney's Exposay.

It was real winter weather that was served up for the sport, but the accommodations at the course of the Southern Maryland Agricultural Association made conditions thoroughly comfortable for a large crowd and there was the usual Bowie enthusiasm.

Only seven went to the post for the Cedacroft, and to many Sun Shadow's victory was not an impressive one for the reason that McAtee had to use all his riding skill to have the son of Sun Briar first over Essare, but this colt will never do more than is required of him and he would have surely beaten better horses just as he did the field that opposed him.

At the barrier, Sun Shadow gave considerable trouble when he repeatedly bolted from his stall. Finally when the break came, Exposay was off in full fling, while Sun Shadow was a bit sluggish in finding his racing legs. Essare and Mud were close after the Waltney filly and Judge Flanagan was showing the way to Sun Shadow, with Revel and Brush about the only other starters following him in fairiy close order. starters following him in fairly close Exposay, showing excellent speed, held to her lead through the back stretch but Mud was close after her and he had put her away to take the command before the three furlong pole wis reached. Essare was racing along strongly back of the son of Med Rigialli and McLitee had Sun Shadow close behind him, though he war working on the black colt, which was responding to the call. to the call.

Swinging into the stretch Mud began $8.50.

Swinging into the stretch Mud began to show signs of weakening, but Essare was still racing gamely and true. Mc-Atee had to swing wide with Sun Shadow to give him racing room and it seemed something of a task to save the day for Exposay, as well as Escare, were still showing him the way, but by dint of hard riding he had the Harriman ooit drawing up on those leaders and in the last sixteenth he was with Essare and then at the line he was winner by a neck.

Essare had beaten the tired Mud two lengths for the place and Exposay was a 'tred fourth, with the other three beaten off. As Morrison was pulling up Judge Flanagan, he was unseated, but he escaped injury from his fail.

Sun Fast, a full brother to Sun Forward, was served up as real good thing in the first race and the public tumbled over one another to get aboard. Mc-Atee had the mount and Sun Fast went to the post an odds-on favorite. When it came to the running, Sun Fast was never a factor and was beaten off at the finish.

In the early stages, Raggedy was the one to make the pace. Dashing to the froot and drawing away the first sixteenth Raggedy had a lead of a length and a half passing the half-mile pole. Rounding the far turn. Reigh Burn took command and led until the final strides to win by a head. Lady Royal was third, beaten a length for the place and then came the Raggedy, beaten a head for the short end of the purse Sun Fast was repeatedly taken up the first half mile, and when the race was practically over he closed stoutly on the outside.

Rosinante scored a run-away victory when he galloped home an easy winner in the second race. A field of twelve went to the post in this and it was an evenly balanced lot. It was a good betting race, with Volante having a slight call. When the break came Rosinante was quickest to begin and was soon out on the front, setting a rapid pace.

Zatelo had Rosinante well in hand

Zatelo had Rosinante well in hand and held him in restraint until they straightened out in the home stretch. In the final furlong, Rosinante drew away, increasing his advantage until he hed a lead of four lengths at the end. Herade was a tiring second, a head in front of Eloise. The latter went wide the entire trip and closed a big gap after a slow beginning.

The full limit of fourteen went to the post in the third race, a claiming affair at a mile and a furlong. J. A. Simms furnished the winner in the Sun Briar colt. Sun Kin, that he claimed from Richard Pending a few days ago. Sun Kin looked in the right sort of a spot and he was made the medium of strong support. Leonard had the mount and when the start come Sun Kin broke a bit slowly.

Going to the first turn the colt was carried wide, and in the run down the back stretch he worked his way up to the pacemakers to take the lead at the half-mile pole. Rounding the far turn Sun Kin drew away, but on the stretch run Leonard was forced to go to a drive to stall off Keydèt's challenge to win by a length. The latter slipped through on the inside entering the home stretch, where he saved much ground.

The long-shot players had their innings in the last two races today. Rhyme

TWINK.

The $10,000 Endurance Haudicap for 2-year-olds at Bowie engages attention of the turf world today. The Home Stable's TWINK, a late rival for championship honors, is my choice, with the McLean Stable's NEDDIE and J. W. Parish's ROY next in order. This is the supreme test for TWINK, as he is asked to give away a lot of weight, and if he comes through, as I expect ho will, he will be entitled to a place with the season's best juveniles.

DISPLAY will be hard to beat in the Autumn Consolation Handicap in the fifth race. He was on his bad behavior in the Bryan Memorial Handicap, but closed a big gap after a poor send-olf, GAFFSMAN also did not have much chance after the start. His previous race gives him a look-in here.

Washington fans comprehend the series as "eliminations" more readily than as "cup tie," as the latter expression is imported from England, where this phase of soc-cer is awaited with the same in-terest that America views the world series in baseball. It is an elimination, in fact, since a team defeated is out of the competi-tion.

Tomorrow is the last day for receiving entries which are being accepted in room 2. District Building. The Washington and Southeastern District Soccer Association, which is sponsoring the eliminations, will meet tomorrow at the above named place to make drawing for the cup tie games.

Middies Now Turning Their Attention to Basketball.

District Teams Listed on Varsity, Plebe Schedules.

ial to The Washington Post.

A NNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 26.—Losing fewer men by graduation next. June than is generally the case, the Navy football squad, which closed its season in the game with Princeton at Philadelphis Saturday, will be in far better shape for the 1929 campaign than it has been for years.

Of the ten players who will have completed their four-year course and go forth as officers in the commissioned service of the Navy, only two were members of the team in the line-up that started against the Quakers. These are Capt. Eddie Burke, left guard, and big Tom Wilson, right tackle. Others of the main squad who donned football togs Saturday as Middles for the last time are Glese and Stovall, tackles; Duborg, guard or center; Butts, guard; Hardin, center; Eleketts, end; Morse and Miller, backs.
Whitey Lloyd, erstwhile star of the back field, also ended his career as a wearer of the moleskins for the naval school, for although he is not a member of the senior class, he has played three years of varsity football at Annapolis, having been turned back a year.

Thus, with nine of the regulars furnishing a nucleus, and many other players of good caliber developed during the season, the Middles will be able to start next year with excellent chances of having a powerful combination.

In view of the great rivalry between the States they represent, added plquancy would be given the annual tournament of roses game in Pasadens January 2 if the committee should select the Universities of California and Florida as the contestants. If the unbeaten Florida Eleven gets by Tennessee—also unbeaten so far—it will be a strong contender for the honor of representing the East in the greatest of intersectional games. He pointed to published reports the afternoon before the match that Hiser would bowl on the Curb Cafe team.

"It was unfair to say that we had been keeping Hiser "under cover." Pappas declared. "The policies of the Curb Cafe team have always been open and above board. We did not protest when Convention Hall transported 'Red' Megaw from his Richmond alleys especially for the match." After losing the first game to Convention Hall by 37 pins. #### Curb Review

New York, Nov. 26 (A.P.).—Speculation for the advance was resumed with considerable vigor in today's curb market, but persistent profit taking gave the market in irregular appearance most of the day. With the approach of the holiday season, the merchandising issues were again in brisk demand. # Cities Service securities make ideal gifts for Christmas

Instead of money this year, why not give securities of the $800,000,000 Cities Service organization? Cities Service Preferred stock at its present price yields 6%, Cities Service Debentures 5% and Cities Service Common stock 71/2% in cash and stock dividends-and they may all be quickly and easily converted into cash.

Thus, a Cities Service security offers all the advantages of a money gift. Yet, by giving it instead of money, you encourage the recipient to build a capital reserve that may some time mean an independent income.

Let us tell you more about Cities Service securities and the Cities Service organization behind them.

SECOND TRUST NOTES

Cities Service securities make ideal gifts for Christmas

Instead of money this year, why not give securities of the $800,000,000 Cities Service organization? Cities Service Preferred stock at its present price yields 6%, Cities Service Debentures 5% and Cities Service Common stock 7½% in cash and stock dividends-and they may all be quickly and easily converted into cash.

Thus, a Cities Service security offers all the advantages of a money gift. Yet, by giving it instead of money, you encourage the recipient to build a capital reserve that may some time mean an independent income.

Let us tell you more about Cities Service securities and the Cities Service organization behind them.

The Final Count

Dozens of issues are brought up in every political campaign. But when the final count of votes is taken, it often is found that the result is due to but one factor in the whole cam-

We, too, might list a dozen reasons why the First Mortgage Notes issued by Swartzell, Rheem & Hensey Company are so often preferred to all other securities by conservative investors in Washington.

But we believe when the final count is taken, all these reasons can be summed up in a single phrase: "Fifty-nine years without loss to an investor."

Your investment funds can have the protection of a house with such a record. The next time you start to make your investment, call in and talk to us first.

Curtailment of the United States wheat visible supply total, unexpected upturns in wheat quotations at Liverpool, and comparative smallness of country offerinas of corn to arrive were likewise construed as factors favorable to grain bulls.

Textlle mills of the Fifth Federal Reserve District were more active last much than in any previous October, reflecting an increased cotton consumption. Reports from the cistrict turitbute the improvement to the recent Government forecast, which gave prospect of no burdensome curplus this year.  October retail sales in this territory were 30 per cent better than in September, and 1.5 per cent above those for the corresponding menth of 1927. There was an improvement in cellections. Of the recelvabics on the books on the first of the month, 28.9 per cent were called, as against 27.8 per cent in 1927.  Stocks on hand in retail stores are reported 2.6 per cent below those of October, 1927. Purchase of textile lines has been limited because of uncertainties invoived.  To date, bank figures have not appeared to reflect the recent recordbreaking stock speculation. A decline of $25,000.000 in commercial loans and bonds, however, developed in the banks of the district during the year ended October 31. It may well be that this sum was for legitimate business purposes, as banks in this territory are not borrowing to place in the New York call money market.  Power Outputs Compared. #### O'Connor, Head of Shipping Board, Belittles "So-Called" Merchant Marine Snags.

Chairman T. V. O'Connor, of the Shipping Board, yesterday declared the high wages paid American seamen on American vessels, compared with the pay received by seamen on foreign ships do not constitute a handicap to the development of this country's merchant marine.

development of this country's merchant marine.

Chairman O'Connor said that numerous suggestions had reached the Shipping Board "that the so-called handicaps to American shipping growing out of higher material and labor costs in the United States, as compared with those of foreign nations, will prevent development of our merchant marine as intended by Congress"

"As to the cost of material going into the construction of vessels. I think that American methods of production will soon find a way to meet the lower costs of foreign countries," he continued. "Congress already has taken steps to equalize existing differentials and it is safe to say that American business can be relied on to do the rest. But in the matter of higher pay for officers and rews, let me be definite in stating that he best bargain America has got is an imerican sailor on deck of an American hip."

Registrar: Preferred Stock and Common Stock, The Commercial National Bank & Trust Company of New York. Depositary's Receipts for $5,000,000 Preferred Stock and 25,000 shares of Common Stock have been withdrawn for sale abroad.

Dr. F. Blüthgen, President of Associated Rayon Corporation and Managing Director of Vereinigte Glanzstoff-Fabriken, Aktiengesellschaft, has summarized his letter, dated November 24, 1928, (copies of which may be obtained from the undersigned) as follows:

CAPITALIZATION. $20,000,000 6% Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock (par value $100) $40,000,000

The shares to be acquired will constitute/a substantial interest in each of the above companies.

The value of the above shares, at present market prices, is about $45,000,000, and, in addition, the Corporation will have in its treasury about $15,000,000 in cash from the proceeds of this financing; the total assets of the Corporation will thus be about $60,000,000, or about $300 per share of Convertible Preferred Stock to be presently outstanding.

The value of the capital stock of Vereinigte Glanzstoff-Fabriken, Aktiengesellschaft, at present market prices, is over $100,000,000.

Wereinigte Glanzstoff-Fabriken, Aktiengesellschaft and J. P. Bemberg, Aktiengesellschaft together produce about 60% of the total rayon manufactured in Germany. The Austrian and Italian companies and N. V. Nederlandsche Kunstzijdefabriek are the largest producers in their respective countries, and the Japanese company is one of the most important in that country. These companies have shared substantially in the extraordinary growth of the industry and, in order to provide for increased plant facilities and working capital, they have from time to time given to their stockholders valuable rights to subscribe for additional stock.

American Bemberg Corporation, which began operation in October, 1926, and American Glanzstoff Corporation, which began operation in August of this year, have plants, located near Elizabethton, Tennessee, with an aggregate capacity of over 30,000 pounds per day. American Enka Corporation is now constructing at Asheville, North Carolina, a plant with a capacity of about 20,000 pounds per day. These companies will, in my opinion, occupy an important place in the American rayon industry, particularly in the production of rayon of high quality.

The Board of Directors of Associated Rayon Corporation will include members of Speyer & Co. and Lehman Brothers, New York, and representatives of Teixeira de Mattos Brothers, Amsterdam, and Lazard Speyer-Ellissen K.a.A., Berlin and Frankfort-on-Main.
